'Wight Christmas'

Revolution Unwraps the 2008

Revolution 'Isle of Wight' a successful National activity camp designed solely for Explorers and Network unwraps their plans for the next installment of Revolution... "Wight Christmas"

Following last years huge success Revolution will be entering it's 14th year in true festive Spirits and the first present to be unwrapped is a

New Campsite Location as we had outgrown our previous location. There will be many more surprise but this letter will outline the essentials to tantalise your taste buds.

2008 is set to be a real CRACKER!

20th – 24th March 2008

£45

What is included in 2008?

Now that the theme has been revealed what activities will be install.

As usual the management team have worked their magic with the help of their little elf helpers to come up with an award winning list of activities, these range from those which will challenge the mind, to those which excite the body, those which simulate the fear, and those that can only be experienced at Revolution. See the planned program for more information.

The camp is designed for you, and based on a cost which you can afford – the whole camp inclusive of all activities day and evening is a mere £45, Yes that is Thurs Eve, Friday, Saturday and Sunday all day and evening activities including camping fees – you can see money spent wisely.

Campsite opens Thurs eve, with Disco first activity & Opening Ceremony Friday.
